

Forever Farewell to Freedom

I've been away for a long, long time
I don't know if I'm ever coming home
Memories still linger on my mind
Memories still linger on my mind

A nation asks me why,
I'd leave and run and hide
And say forever, farewell to freedom

I've been away for a long, long time
I don't know if I'll ever be the same
And at times I wish I could be home
Across the longest, loneliest ocean I have known

A nation asks me why
I'd leave and run and hide
And say forever farewell to freedom

The tourist spots have been friends of mine
I hide away and never have to look
At the thoughts that linger on my mind and the long and lonely ocean I leave behind
