

Here's my serenade
A song for an angel
Sent from high above
On this cool and moonlit night
She comes to me.

Here's my serenade
A song for my lady
Sung when you are near
Hear my tender words
And know I love you.

Tonight, I'll sing this song for you
For the night belongs to you
The moon and bright stars will shine
Especially for you.
And just for you
The cool night air is still
In silent reverie.
And when the dawn awakes to find
Your loving arms in mine
The moon and bright stars
Will still be in your eyes.

Here's my serenade
A song for my angel
Come from paradise
Hear the song I sing
And know I love you
My darling I love you
